- VI. Unfinished Business
- A. Ohio State Trip Report
1. Jared Ostdiek and Andrew Shaw shared their perceptions of the Ohio State Student Exchange. The Ohio State students, faculty and staff were great hosts. Attended the Homecoming Parade and Pep Rally, Student Life Alumni Social, and the Nebraska Alumni Social. Both of the socials were held in the Recreation and Physical Activity Center (RPAC), which is Ohio State's main recreation facility. The RPAC is larger than 600,000 sq. ft. and cost approximately $152 million. Toured two of the six Ohio State indoor recreation facilities. Met with President Gee.
- B. NIRSA Nebraska/South Dakota State Workshop & Student Lead-on, Thursday, November 1, 2012, Vermillion, SD.
1. We plan to leave and come back on the same day (long day). If interested in attending please let Stan or Deb know as soon as possible.
- VI. New Business
- A. Introduction of Jarred Vogel, RHA Representative
1. Jared Vogel will attend the Campus Recreation Advisory Council to gain perspective for the Residence Hall Association. Welcome Jared.

- B. Neptune FitU – Katie Wilder
 - 1. Katie Wilder, Strength and Conditioning Coordinator, proposed that the strength and conditioning rooms at the Campus Rec Center and FFAB subscribe to Neptune FitU program for workout music. This service would also allow Campus Recreation to do commercials for its activities.
 - 2. Kierra Ochs made and Marissa McCormick seconded a motion to support Campus Recreation negotiating with Neptune FitU for this service. The motion passed unanimously.
- C. Personal Training Proposed Price Increase
 - a. Cathy Jewell, Assistant Director for Fitness, requested a price raise in the personal training fees to help balance the personal training budget. Cathy presented benchmark information from Big Ten institutions that provide similar service.
 - b. Kierra Ochs made and Karan Rai seconded a motion to approve the requested rates of $35 per session and $57 per startup session for personal training effective July 1, 2013. Motion passed unanimously.
- D. Representative from Campus Recreation Advisory Council to attend a meeting with the Career Services Review Team
 - 1. The luncheon meeting will be on Tuesday, November 6, 12 Noon in the Nebraska Union. Marissa McCormick will attend and represent the council.
