A. OAC Price Structures

Jordan Messerer and Todd Grier with Outdoor adventures presented information about changes and updates. Construction has started on the Outdoor Adventures Center and the contractor is hoping to pour footings next week. The outside climbing wall is scheduled to be done and the building enclosed by August 5th, then they will start on the indoor climbing and bouldering walls.

Fees for the challenge course haven't changed in the last decade, but with a better gravel road to access the course, the fees are being reevaluated. Currently UNL students pay $20 for a full day experience, which will continue. A fee increase of $5 for non-UNL affiliated organizations is being proposed. For profit organizations will be charged $10 more.

The OAC has the opportunity to rent bike lockers. Outside the building there will be reserved lockers for bicycles, which also will provide 24/7 access to showers. The proposed cost for members would cost $25/month and non-Campus Recreation members would be charged $40/month. We anticipate there being 18 bike lockers. A few medium size lockers will be available inside the building; members will be charged $3/month and non-members $8/month. The OAC will have free day use lockers for patrons. The OAC will allow for patrons to ride their bikes to work and key swipe into the locker room area for $2/month for members and $5/month for non-members. The climbing and bouldering gym annual pass will cost $15 for members. Members will continue to get one free climb per semester. The climbing gym monthly pass will be $40/month, and will require a minimum of 3 months and a one-time account initiation fee of $50. The OAC will offer a family rate, which includes 2 adult passes and up to 3 youth (5-16 year old) for $775/year.

A decision on the proposed price structure will be determined at the April 16th meeting.

B. Constitution Revisions

A change is being requested regarding the method used to fill a vacancy on the Council; Article III, Section II c, would allow the CRAC Executive Committee to appoint a member to fill a vacancy.

Article III, Section V (last paragraph) change the review of membership to occur after two consecutive unexcused absences.

Article V, Section II a—Standing Committees, change the names of committees to reflect reorganization within Campus Recreation

Marissa McCormick moved and Kaelen Lagasse seconded a motion to approve the proposed changes to the constitution. The revisions were approved unanimously.
